

ALIENS, ANGELS, OR ANCESTORS? UNMASKING THE DECEPTION

BRADLEY BURNHAM

A deception is coming that will shake the entire world. It will not come from a government, a world leader, or a mere human conspiracy. It will come from Satan himself in a tangible form of spiritualism. And it will be so powerful that nearly the entire world will believe it. Did you know that this form of spiritualism is already being spoken of in the nightly news? Did you know the United States, France, Canada, Japan, China, and Russia have already acknowledged publicly that they are studying this spiritualism?

The world is being prepared through paranormal experiences, near-death testimonies, UAP (Unexplained Aerial Phenomena) sightings, and supernatural manifestations. Governments are acknowledging the existence of unexplained aerial phenomena. Hollywood and the media are normalizing the idea of contact with beings from “other worlds.” Scientists and atheists—once the greatest skeptics—are now open to a new supernatural belief that passes the scientific method.

Something is coming. Let’s study and understand how this last-day spiritualism will appear from the Bible, so we are not deceived. The Bible reveals exactly how this deception will unfold.

PROPHETIC IDENTIFIER #1

The Appearance of the Dead

The first and most dangerous element of Satan’s final deception is spiritualism—the belief that the dead are still conscious and can communicate with the living. This lie, rooted in the serpent’s first deception to Eve—“Ye shall not surely die” (Genesis 3:4)—has spread throughout every culture and religion.

The Bible is clear:

“His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; in that very day his thoughts perish” (Psalm 146:4).

“The soul that sinneth, it shall die” (Ezekiel 18:20).

“For the living know that they shall die: but the dead know not any thing” (Ecclesiastes 9:5).

Despite this, Satan has convinced billions that the dead are not truly dead. He will use this belief to deceive the world in the final crisis. The book The Great Controversy warns:

“The spirits of devils will go forth to the kings of the earth and to the whole world, to fasten them in deception and urge them on to unite with Satan in his last struggle against the government of Heaven” (p. 624).

This is exactly what Revelation 16:13–14 foretells:

“And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world.”

These spirits—demonic entities—will impersonate deceased loved ones, prophets, and even Christ Himself. They will appear in visible form, bringing messages of “hope” and “unity” and calling for a new spiritual awakening. But their true goal will be to lead people away from the truth of God’s Word.

PROPHETIC IDENTIFIER #2

A False Gospel

Satan’s final deception will not only involve supernatural appearances of the dead, it will introduce a new gospel that directly opposes the truth of God’s Word.

Paul warns:

“Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils” (1 Timothy 4:1).

This false gospel will be introduced through spiritualism. It will teach that salvation is not found in Christ alone, but rather in human enlightenment and unity. It will downplay the authority of Scripture and promote the idea that all religions lead to God.

This is exactly what Satan wants:

“For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world”
(Revelation 16:14).

The book The Great Controversy warns:

“Satan himself is converted, after the modern order of things. He will appear in the character of an angel of light. Through the agency of spiritualism, miracles will be wrought, the sick will be healed, and many undeniable wonders will be performed. And as the spirits will profess faith in the Bible, and manifest respect for the institutions of the church, their work will be accepted as a manifestation of divine power” (p. 588).

“The law of God is set aside, the Spirit of grace despised, the blood of the covenant counted an unholy thing. The spirits deny the deity of Christ and place even the Creator on a level with themselves. Thus under a new disguise the great rebel still carries on his warfare against God, begun in heaven, and for nearly six thousand years continued upon the earth” (p. 552).

This false gospel will soon unite the world under a one-world spiritual movement—one that denies biblical truth and prepares the way for the Antichrist.

PROPHETIC IDENTIFIER #3

Signs in the Sky

One of the most surprising aspects of Satan’s final deception will be great signs and wonders in the heavens—supernatural manifestations so convincing that even skeptics will believe. Jesus Himself warns:

“And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring; Men’s hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth” (Luke 21:25–26).

These events will not be natural occurrences. The Bible tells us they will be caused by demonic powers:

“And fearful sights and great signs shall there be from heaven” (Luke 21:11).

Ellen White expands on this:

“Fearful sights of a supernatural character will soon be revealed in the heavens, in token of the power of miracle-working demons” (The Great Controversy, p. 624).

PROPHETIC IDENTIFIER #4

False Gods and Pagan Deities

Satan’s final deception will not only involve supernatural signs but also the return of false gods and pagan deities—manifestations of demonic forces masquerading as divine beings. The Bible warns:

“For false Christs and false prophets shall rise, and shall shew signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect” (Mark 13:22).

These deceptions will not be vague illusions but visible, tangible appearances of entities claiming to be divine. Ancient gods of Egypt, Babylon, Greece, and other civilizations will appear before the world, performing miracles and calling for worship.

Ellen White expands on this:

“As we near the close of time, there will be greater and still greater external parade of heathen power; heathen deities will manifest their signal power and will exhibit themselves before the cities of the world” (Testimonies to Ministers and Gospel Workers, p.117).

PROPHETIC IDENTIFIER #5

Deception Aimed at the Scientific Community

Satan's final deception will be so overwhelming that even the most skeptical minds—scientists, atheists, and intellectuals—will be forced to acknowledge the supernatural. Those who have not accepted “the love of the truth” will accept the lie (2 Thessalonians 2:10, 11). Who is the truth? Jesus is the way, the truth, and the life. The Bible foretells this moment:

“And all the world wondered after the beast”
(Revelation 13:3).

“And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved” (2 Thessalonians 2:10).

Many today dismiss the supernatural realm as mere myth. But Satan knows that science and materialism alone will not unite the world under his rule. He must provide undeniable evidence of supernatural forces, tailored specifically for those who reject faith.

Ellen White confirms this:

“Men under the influence of evil spirits will work miracles. They will make people sick by casting their spell upon them, and will then remove the spell, leading others to believe that those who were sick have been miraculously healed.” (Selected Messages, vol. 2, p. 53)

PROPHETIC IDENTIFIER #6

False Worship

The final deception will not just convince individuals—it will unite the entire world under a single, false system of worship. Revelation gives a clear understanding of the coming deception as powerful religious powers, like the Vatican, unite together with the dragon, which is Satan and his spiritualism, in the last great struggle against God.

“All the world wondered after the beast. And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast?” (Revelation 13:3–4).

“And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world” (Revelation 13:8).

Satan’s ultimate goal is worship. The deception will be so overwhelming that it will seem like it erases religious divisions. All will be united under one false religion that denies God’s law and exalts Satan’s counterfeit system.

Ellen White warns:

“As spiritualism more closely imitates the nominal Christianity of the day, it has greater power to deceive and ensnare. . . . Satan determines to unite them all into one body and thus strengthen his cause by sweeping all into the ranks of spiritualism” (The Great Controversy, p. 588).

This movement will be supernatural in origin, uniting apostate Christianity, political powers, and demonic manifestations. It will appear righteous, promising peace, unity, health, and healing. It will be a direct rebellion against God.

“Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus” (Revelation 14:12).

The final deception is no longer a distant event. It is unfolding before our eyes. Every element of Satan’s master plan is being carefully introduced into society, even as you read this text. It is shaping the world’s beliefs and expectations. Those who do not study God’s Word will be caught completely off guard.

We just identified six prophetic qualities of Satan’s last-day deception. Now, we will examine how these qualities are being fulfilled in modern events.

Scripture is clear:

“For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places” (Ephesians 6:12).

Are these qualities being seen in our day? Absolutely! The battle is real. It is happening now.

PRESENT IDENTIFIER #1

The Living Dead

One of the most dangerous lies Satan has ever spread is the idea that the dead are still conscious and can communicate with the living.

Despite this clear biblical truth, millions today believe in life after death, ghosts, and spirit communication. This deception is not merely a theological error—it is laying the groundwork for Satan's final masterpiece of deception.

The evidence of this deception is everywhere:

1. Near-Death Experiences (NDEs) Are Promoting False Ideas About the Afterlife

- Many people claim that after death, they saw heavenly beings, dead loved ones, or even Jesus.
- The message they return with is always the same:
 - ➔ Everyone is saved.
 - ➔ Sin does not matter.
 - ➔ There are many paths to God.
- These NDEs directly contradict Scripture. Instead of confirming the Bible, they support Satan's lie that the dead still live and can communicate with us.

2. “Alien” Encounters Are Often Connected to Spirit Communication

- Many abductees claim to have seen and spoken with deceased relatives aboard UFOs.
- Others say they have been taken into an “afterlife realm” where they encountered dead loved ones.
- These beings present a new spiritual message that directly opposes the Bible.

Ellen White warns us of this deception:

“Satanic agencies personate the dead and thus bring souls into captivity” (Evangelism, p. 603).

These are not ghosts, extraterrestrials, or enlightened beings. They are demons impersonating the dead.

One striking example of this deception is the testimony of Chris Bledsoe, a former Christian who had an encounter that changed his faith. Bledsoe claims to have seen three glowing balls of fire that were forty-feet in diameter suspended in the sky, one of which transformed into a shimmering, angelic female figure. This being identified herself as Hathor, an ancient goddess, and gave him a spiritual message.

She told him:

“There is trouble coming, and we are going to wake the people up. We want you to introduce us to the world.”

This deception checks every box for Identifier #1:

- Supernatural beings appear in a glowing form.
- They claim to be benevolent messengers here to help.
- They prepare the world for a final deception.

Could it be that these beings are not aliens but fallen angels?

Ellen White confirms that in the days of the Hebrews familiar spirits claimed to be called “visitants from other worlds.”

“In the days of the Hebrews there was a class of people who claimed, as do the spiritualists of today, to hold communication with the dead. But the ‘familiar spirits,’ as these visitants from other worlds were called, are declared by the Bible to be ‘the spirits of devils’” (The Great Controversy, p. 556).

PRESENT IDENTIFIER #2

A False Gospel

The second major quality of last-day spiritualism is the introduction of a counterfeit gospel. Paul warns:

“If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that which ye have received, let him be accursed” (Galatians 1:9).

Ellen White says that, in the future, demons will use the same alien guise again:

“The pretended visitants from the world of spirits sometimes utter cautions and warnings which prove to be correct. Then, as confidence is gained, they present doctrines that directly undermine faith in the Scriptures” (The Great Controversy, p. 552).

Many UFO contactees claim these so-called extraterrestrial beings bring messages about the future of humanity. What do they teach?

1. That Jesus Christ is merely a human who has transcended this earth's mortal body and has attained enlightenment by becoming what they call an "Ascended Master." Many abductees report being told that Jesus was not divine, but merely a wise teacher. Others claim that Jesus was someone from another world who came to "help humanity evolve." This denies Christ's divinity and undermines the gospel.

2. That all religions lead to God. The beings do not promote Christianity alone. Instead, they teach that all paths—Buddhism, Hinduism, Islam, Christianity—are equally valid. This contradicts Jesus' own words: "I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me" (John 14:6).

3. That humanity must "prepare" for a great awakening. Many abductees claim that aliens are here to guide us into a new era. They preach that, soon, the world will change, and a new system will be introduced. They present a global utopia on Earth that will unite all people.

Ellen White warns of this movement:

“Satan determines to unite them in one body and thus strengthen his cause by sweeping all into the ranks of spiritualism” (The Great Controversy, p. 588).

This false gospel of universalism, as preached by pretended otherworldly beings, is preparing the world for the final deception. But, that’s not all. Governments around the world, specifically China, Russia, and the USA, are studying these apparitions in the sky under a new acronym—UAP (Unidentified Anomalous Phenomenon).

PRESENT IDENTIFIER #3

Signs in the Heavens

In recent years, governments worldwide—particularly the U.S. Pentagon—have publicly acknowledged strange objects in the sky that defy the laws of physics. Former Pentagon intelligence officer Luis Elizondo described UAPs as possessing the following five supernatural abilities:

1. Instantaneous acceleration (thousands of G-forces).
2. Hypersonic speeds without propulsion signatures or sonic boom.
3. Anti-gravity characteristics (no wings, no exhaust, hovering silently).
4. Transmedium travel (moving from space to air to underwater seamlessly).
5. Cloaking, or invisibility, to radar and the human eye.

On December 16, 2017, the first modern case of this new spiritualism was revealed in an article by the New York Times titled “Glowing Auras and ‘Black Money’: The Pentagon’s Mysterious U.F.O. Program.” The article was about the U.S.S. Nimitz, an aircraft carrier which encountered a “Tic-Tac” shaped UAP on November 14, 2004. The incident involved four trained Navy pilots who witnessed an object moving faster than anything known to man. Multiple radar systems tracked this craft, confirming its existence. Everyone involved was left stunned and terrified, just as Luke 21:26 predicted.

The U.S. Congress has held multiple hearings about UAPs. High-ranking officials have stated publicly that they do not believe these objects are man-made. The growing fear and curiosity surrounding these events are preparing minds for a major supernatural deception.

The Bible explicitly warns that “fearful sights and great signs” (Luke 21:11) from heaven will be used to deceive humanity.

The Great Controversy elaborates:

“Fearful sights of a supernatural character will soon be revealed in the heavens, in token of the power of miracle-working demons” (p. 624).

The Ellen White statement above perfectly describes what is happening today. These “signs in the heavens” are being used to shake people’s beliefs and make them question reality. Demons masquerading as extraterrestrial beings are already preparing the world for an even greater deception. By connecting Scripture to modern events, we see Identifier #3 unfolding before our very eyes.

PRESENT IDENTIFIER #4

Pagan Deities and Fake Prophets

As we already mentioned, one of the most disturbing cases of modern supernatural deception is that of Chris Bledsoe, a former Christian and deacon of his church who encountered supernatural orbs of fire in the sky, claiming to be a pagan deity. The experience had such an impact on Bledsoe that he left Christianity and began to study ancient Egyptian spirituality and traditions. Bledsoe continues to have encounters with the beings until this day, especially around Easter. However, his case is not unique.

This deception is precisely what Ellen White and the Bible warns about:

“The pretended visitants from the world of spirits sometimes utter cautions and warnings which prove to be correct. Then, as confidence is gained, they present doctrines that directly undermine faith in the Scriptures” (The Great Controversy, p. 552).

These supernatural false gods are already appearing.

Another piece of evidence is in the testimony of Roger Morneau.

Roger Morneau, a former occultist who converted to be a Seventh-day Adventist Christian, was warned by Satanists that these spiritual entities would one day reveal themselves to the world in physical form. The demonic priest in his occult church told Morneau that fallen angels would appear as extraterrestrials.

“It’s going to be done in a unique manner, this grand plan, people are going to eat this stuff up! Demon spirits will declare themselves to be inhabitants of far distant planets of the galaxies; that are coming to warn the inhabitants of planet earth of the impending destruction of the planet, unless something is done to avoid it.”

“The spirits will show themselves willing to give valuable guidance that will not only help people avoid the destruction of the planet, but it will cause it to enter into a higher state of existence. For instance, he said, the spirits will promise that if their recommendations are followed carefully they will usher in a glorious new age of peace and prosperity and there'll be no more wars; no more famines; no more people getting unhappy with one another; neighbor will love neighbor; and social unrest will not take place anymore; there'll be perfect happiness for a thousand years; that's what the spirits are going to promise" (Video Interview with Roger Morneau by Hart Research Center. "A Trip Into The Supernatural").

This exact scenario is now playing out before us.

PRESENT IDENTIFIER #5

Atheistic Supernatural Religion

For years, atheists have dismissed spirituality. But something is happening that is forcing them to reconsider: the rise of unexplained supernatural events.

Scientists and intellectuals—once skeptical of anything beyond the material world—are now reporting “anomalous experiences.” Some have encountered UFOs, paranormal phenomena, and out-of-body experiences that have radically shifted their worldview. Dr. Jeffrey Kripal, a professor at Rice University, noted that highly intelligent, scientifically trained individuals are being “flipped” by these supernatural encounters.

He states:

“A scientist or an engineer is trained in a very materialist worldview. But when they have an anomalous experience—whether it’s a near-death experience, a psychedelic experience, or something else—it flips them. Once they’re flipped, they’re flipped. It’s hard to get them back to the earlier materialist perspective.”

This means that people who once refused to believe in the supernatural are now being converted—just not to Christianity.

It’s not just atheists who are pushing this agenda, the U.S. government is no longer denying the existence of supernatural phenomena. Instead, it is actively engaging in disclosure—holding congressional hearings and urging people to pay attention to the “entities” interacting with our world.

- Luis Elizondo, former head of the Pentagon’s UAP program, warned that some government officials believe these phenomena are “spiritual” in nature.

- Mainstream media is covering UFO stories like never before.
- Scientists are being recruited to “study” these encounters, making them more credible.

What’s happening? A new belief system is emerging—one that replaces Christianity with a deceptive supernatural faith. People who have encountered these so-called extraterrestrials report that they bring specific messages:

- They deny Jesus Christ.
- They teach that all religions are one.
- They promote a future global unity that will bring peace—but only if humanity follows their “guidance.”

This is not a random occurrence. This is a satanic strategy.

Ellen White warns:

“Satan will use every opportunity to seduce men from their allegiance to God. He and the angels who fell with him will appear on earth as men” (Manuscripts Releases, vol. 8, p. 399).

Atheists are no longer standing outside of faith. They are being led into a false faith. This is how Identifier #5 is being fulfilled. The final battle will not be between believers and unbelievers. It will be between those who follow Christ and those who follow the false religion.

PRESENT IDENTIFIER #6

Two Religions: Commandment Keepers vs. Delusion Believers

The world is being divided into two camps—those who follow God’s commandments and those who follow a counterfeit religion. The ecumenical movement is erasing biblical distinctions, and the Vatican is leading efforts to unite all religions into one, while calling for interfaith cooperation and downplaying doctrinal differences. Although this movement claims to promote peace, it is actually preparing the world for war.

Supernatural experiences are convincing millions that a new faith is needed. Messages from pretended extraterrestrials promote a one-world spiritual system. False miracles and signs are persuading people that Bible-based Christianity is outdated. A new “social justice” is emerging.

Revelation 13 makes it clear:

“As many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed” (v. 15).

Once the world is fully united in the deception, those who refuse to comply will be labeled as enemies of peace.

We are living in the final days of Earth’s history. The prophetic timeline has nearly reached its completion, and the warnings given by Jesus, Paul, and John are being fulfilled before our very eyes. The six identifiers of last-day spiritualism are no longer distant prophecies; they are active deceptions working now to ensnare the world.

Let me be clear: The final events outlined in Revelation 16 are not currently underway, but they are rapidly approaching and quietly gaining speed. We currently have a chance to circumvent the plans of spiritualism by talking more about this topic and sharing this booklet.

This means there is no more time for complacency. The final test of faith is approaching, and only those who are rooted in Christ will stand.

The Bible tells us:

“And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure” (1 John 3:3).

God is calling His people to a life of holiness and purity—to be separate from the world and prepared for the coming of Christ.

The deception we have studied is not merely a test of knowledge—it is a test of character. Intellectual understanding alone will not be enough to withstand the spiritual pressure of these last days. We must be “transformed by the renewing of [our minds]” and walk in holiness if we are to stand against Satan’s masterpiece of deception (Romans 12:2).

The Bible is clear that in the final days, God’s true people will be those who live in obedience to His law and reflect His holiness.

“Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord?
Or who shall stand in His holy place? He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart” (Psalm 24:3–4).

This is not a time for casual Christianity. It is not enough to claim the name of Jesus while living in worldliness and sin. We must be set apart, purified, and wholly surrendered to Christ.

The Bible describes those who will stand victorious at Christ's coming as overcomers.

“And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death” (Revelation 12:11).

The deception we have uncovered in this booklet is not just interesting information—it is a life-or-death warning for those who have ears to hear. The world is rushing toward Satan's greatest trap, and many do not see it.

If this message has opened your eyes:

- Give this booklet to your pastor and church leaders. Many have never studied these things.
- Share this message with your friends and family. The deception is coming for everyone, and those who are unprepared will be swept away.
- Use social media and personal connections to spread awareness. The more people who understand what is coming, the fewer will be deceived.

We cannot remain silent while millions are being led into Satan's snare. This is a moment of spiritual war, and we must be faithful watchmen on the walls of Zion.

"Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me" (Ezekiel 3:17).

If you have been blessed by this study and recognize the importance of exposing the deceptions of the last-days, we invite you to support Orion Media Ministry, which started as the Christian podcast Strange Normal.

“The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few” (Luke 10:2).

Now is the time to act. This world is not our home. Everything in this life is passing away, but what we do for Christ will last for eternity.

“Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock” (Matthew 7:24).

Jesus is coming soon! The final movements will be rapid ones. We must be sober, be vigilant, and most of all—be ready!
