Protestant Print/Book Sources

1. Isaac Williams, Plain Sermons on the Catechism (Vol. 1, pp. 334, 336)

- Denomination: Anglican (Church of England)
- Type: Sermon collection
- Availability: Anglican theological libraries, historical sermon collections
- Key Content: Acknowledged Sunday observance has no direct biblical command

2. Canon Eyton, The Ten Commandments (pp. 52, 63, 65)

- Denomination: Anglican
- Type: Theological work on the Decalogue
- Availability: Anglican archives, theological libraries
- Key Content: Acknowledged Fourth Commandment specifies seventh day (Saturday), change came from church tradition

3. Bishop Seymour, Why We Keep Sunday

- Denomination: Episcopal
- Type: Apologetic work defending Sunday
- Availability: Episcopal archives, theological libraries
- Key Content: Even while defending Sunday, had to admit it lacks biblical foundation

4. The Baptist Manual by Dr. Edward T. Hiscox

- Denomination: Baptist
- Type: Denominational handbook

- Availability:
  - Baptist historical libraries
  - Possibly available through Baptist historical societies
  - Used book dealers
- Note: Dr. Hiscox is known for his famous 1893 address (see periodical sources below)

5. William Owen Carver, The Lord's Day in Our Day (p. 49)

- Denomination: Southern Baptist
- Type: Theological work
- Availability: Southern Baptist Theological Seminary library, Baptist archives
- Key Content: Acknowledged neither Jesus nor apostles instituted Sunday observance

6. Dr. R. W. Dale, The Ten Commandments (New York: Eaton & Mains, pp. 127-129)

- Denomination: Congregationalist
- Type: Theological commentary on Decalogue
- Availability: Congregationalist archives, theological libraries, used book dealers
- Key Content: "It is quite clear that however rigidly or devotedly we may spend Sunday, we are not keeping the Sabbath... The Sabbath was founded on a specific Divine command. We can plead no such command for the obligation to observe Sunday."

7. Timothy Dwight, Theology: Explained and Defended (1823, Sermon 107, Vol. 3, p. 258)

- Denomination: Congregationalist (President of Yale University)
- Type: Systematic theology sermon collection
- Availability:
  - Yale University library archives
  - Historical theology collections
  - Possibly Archive.org
- Key Content: Acknowledged Sabbath commandment specifies seventh day, Christian observance of first day came from tradition
- Search Terms: "Timothy Dwight Theology Explained Defended Yale"

8. Alexander Campbell, The Christian Baptist (Feb. 2, 1824, Vol. 1, No. 7, p. 164)

- Denomination: Disciples of Christ (Campbellite movement founder)
- Type: Periodical/journal (catalogued here because it is widely available in collected and reprinted book editions through Disciples of Christ archives)
- Availability:
  - Disciples of Christ historical archives
  - Restoration movement libraries
  - Historical religious periodical collections
- Key Content: "If it be changed, it was that august personage changed it who changes times and laws ex officio – I think his name is Doctor Antichrist."

9. First Day Observance (pp. 17, 19)

- Type: Protestant pamphlet
- Availability: Protestant historical literature collections
- Key Content: Acknowledged first-day observance developed in church history, not from biblical mandate

10. The Sunday Problem, a study book of the United Lutheran Church (1923, p. 36)

- Denomination: Lutheran
- Type: Official denominational study publication
- Availability:
  - Lutheran Church historical archives
  - Lutheran theological seminary libraries
- Key Content: "We have seen how gradually the impression of the Jewish Sabbath faded from the mind of the Christian Church... But what a pity that it comes branded with the mark of Paganism, and christened with the name of the sun-god, then adopted and sanctioned by the Papal apostasy, and bequeathed as a sacred legacy to Protestantism."
- Note: The closing language of this quote is nearly identical to Dr. Hiscox's famous 1893 address (see Protestant item 17 below). This 1923 Lutheran publication almost certainly quoted Hiscox, demonstrating how widely his admission circulated across Protestant denominations.

11. Augsburg Confession of Faith, Article 28 (Written by Melanchthon, approved by Martin Luther, 1530)

- Denomination: Lutheran (Foundational confession)
- Type: Official Lutheran confession of faith
- Availability:
  - Published in The Book of Concord of the Evangelical Lutheran Church (Henry Jacobs, ed., 1911, p. 63)
  - Widely available in print and online
  - Lutheran archives and libraries
- Online Access: Multiple translations available online through Lutheran organizations
- Key Content: "They [the Catholics] allege the Sabbath changed into Sunday, the Lord's day, contrary to the Decalogue, as it appears, neither is there any example more boasted of than the changing of the Sabbath day."
- Search Terms: "Augsburg Confession Article 28 Sabbath"

12. Dr. Augustus Neander, The History of the Christian Religion and Church (Henry John Rose, tr., 1843, p. 186)

- Denomination: German Lutheran
- Type: Church history (major scholarly work)
- Availability:
  - Theological libraries
  - Historical theology sections
  - Possibly Archive.org
- Key Content: "The festival of Sunday, like all other festivals, was always only a human ordinance, and it was far from the intentions of the apostles to establish a Divine command in this respect."

13. John Theodore Mueller, Sabbath or Sunday (pp. 15, 16)

- Denomination: Lutheran
- Type: Theological monograph
- Availability: Lutheran theological libraries
- Key Content: Acknowledged Sabbath commandment specifies Saturday, Sunday observance came from tradition

14. John Wesley, The Works of the Rev. John Wesley, A.M. (John Emory, ed., New York: Eaton & Mains, Sermon 25, Vol. 1, p. 221)

- Type: Complete works collection
- Availability:
  - Widely available (Wesley's works are published in multiple editions)
  - Methodist archives and libraries
  - Online versions available
  - Current print editions available for purchase
- Online Access: Multiple online versions of Wesley's complete works
- Key Content: "But, the moral law contained in the ten commandments, and enforced by the prophets, he [Christ] did not take away... This is a law which never can be broken... Every part of this law must remain in force upon all mankind, and in all ages."
- Search Terms: "John Wesley Works Sermon 25 moral law ten commandments"

15. D. L. Moody, Weighed and Wanting (Fleming H. Revell Co.: New York, pp. 47-48)

- Denomination: Evangelical (Founder of Moody Bible Institute)
- Type: Devotional/teaching book
- Availability:
  - Moody Bible Institute archives
  - Evangelical theological libraries
  - Possibly still in print
  - Used book dealers
- Key Content: "The Sabbath was binding in Eden, and it has been in force ever since... How can men claim that this one commandment has been done away with when they will admit that the other nine are still binding?"
- Search Terms: "D.L. Moody Weighed and Wanting Sabbath"

16. T. C. Blake, D.D., Theology Condensed (pp. 474-475)

- Denomination: Presbyterian
- Type: Systematic theology
- Availability: Presbyterian theological libraries
- Key Content: Acknowledged seventh day is Sabbath according to commandment, change came through tradition

Protestant Periodical Sources

17. Dr. Edward T. Hiscox, paper read before New York ministers' conference (Nov. 13, 1893)

- Reported in: New York Examiner, Nov. 16, 1893
- Denomination: Baptist (author of The Baptist Manual)
- Type: Address to ministers, reported in newspaper
- Availability:
  - New York Examiner archives
  - Baptist historical society archives
  - Historical newspaper databases (Newspapers.com, etc.)
- Key Content: "There is no scriptural evidence of the change of the Sabbath institution from the seventh to the first day of the week... But what a pity it comes branded with the mark of paganism, and christened with the name of the sun god, adopted and sanctioned by the papal apostasy, and bequeathed as a sacred legacy to Protestantism!"
- Significance: One of the most famous Protestant admissions, widely quoted. His language — "branded with the mark of paganism... adopted and sanctioned by the papal apostasy... bequeathed as a sacred legacy to Protestantism" — was echoed nearly verbatim in a 1923 United Lutheran Church study book (see Protestant item 10 above), confirming the far-reaching influence of this statement across denominations.

18. Harris Franklin Rall, Christian Advocate (July 2, 1942, p. 26)

- Denomination: Methodist
- Type: Denominational periodical
- Availability:
  - Methodist archives
  - United Methodist Church historical libraries
  - Christian Advocate historical collections
- Key Content: "Take the matter of Sunday. There are indications in the New Testament as to how the church came to keep the first day of the week as its day of worship, but there is no passage telling Christians to keep that day, or to transfer the Jewish Sabbath to that day."

Archival Strategy

High Priority - Web-Accessible Sources

These should be downloaded/saved first as they're readily available:

1. Vatican Documents:
   - Dies Domini (1998) - Full text available at vatican.va
   - Catholic Catechism - Available online at vatican.va
   - Action: Download PDF versions, save locally
2. Protestant Historical Documents:
   - Augsburg Confession - Multiple online versions available
   - John Wesley's Works - Online versions available
   - Action: Download from reliable theological websites

Medium Priority - Archive.org and Digital Libraries

Check these sources for digitized historical books:

1. Archive.org (https://archive.org):
    - Search for historical Catholic catechisms (Geiermann, Keenan, Tuberville)
    - Search for Protestant theological works (Dwight, Dale, Neander)
    - Search for D.L. Moody's books
    - Search for Cardinal Gibbons' "Faith of Our Fathers"
2. Google Books:
    - Many older books available in full or preview
    - Search by author and title
3. HathiTrust Digital Library (https://www.hathitrust.org):
    - Large collection of digitized books from academic libraries
    - Good source for older theological works

Lower Priority - Purchase/Library Access

For books still in print or available through libraries:

1. Still in Print:
    - Cardinal Gibbons, "Faith of Our Fathers" (TAN Books)
    - John Wesley's Works (various editions)
    - Catholic Catechism (current edition)
2. Library Access:
    - Interlibrary loan for historical books
    - University theological libraries (especially Catholic universities)
    - Denominational archives (Baptist, Methodist, Lutheran, etc.)
3. Used Book Dealers:
    - AbeBooks.com (specialty in rare/used books)
    - ThriftBooks.com
    - Catholic/Christian used bookstores

Download/Archive Instructions

Step 1: Immediate Web Downloads (No Purchase Required)

Priority downloads - Start with these free, immediately accessible sources:

1. Vatican Documents (vatican.va):
    - Dies Domini full text
    - Catechism sections on Ten Commandments and Sunday
    - Save as PDF using browser "Print to PDF" function

2. Book of Concord (bookofconcord.org):
    - Augsburg Confession Article 28
    - Save as PDF

3. Wesley Center Online (wesley.nnu.edu):
    - John Wesley's Sermon 25 and other relevant sermons
    - Save as PDF

4. Archive.org:

    - Search all titles listed above
    - Download available PDFs
    - Create folder structure: "Catholic Sources" and "Protestant Sources"

5. Google Books / HathiTrust:
    - Search all book titles
    - Download full-view PDFs where available
    - Note partially accessible books for potential library access

Step 2: Newspaper Archive Research

Historical newspaper articles:

1. Chronicling America (Free):
    - Search: "New York Examiner November 1893 Hiscox"
    - Search: "Elizabeth New Jersey 1903"
    - Download full page images
2. Newspapers.com (Subscription - consider free trial):
    - Search Catholic newspapers: Our Sunday Visitor, Catholic Press, etc.
    - Download relevant articles
    - Cancel before trial ends if only needed temporarily

Step 3: Library Research

For books not available online:

1. WorldCat (https://www.worldcat.org):
    - Search for each book title
    - Find nearest library holding the item
    - Request through interlibrary loan
2. University Libraries:
    - Catholic universities often have extensive Catholic historical collections
    - Seminary libraries (Catholic, Baptist, Methodist, Lutheran) have denominational materials
    - Many offer researcher access even to non-students
3. Denominational Archives:
    - Contact directly for access to historical materials:
        - Baltimore Archdiocese (Cardinal Gibbons papers)
        - Methodist Archives (John Wesley materials, Christian Advocate)
        - Baptist Historical Society (Hiscox materials)
        - Lutheran Archives (denominational studies)

Step 4: Purchase Strategy

For currently in-print materials:

1. TAN Books (Catholic publisher):
   - "Faith of Our Fathers" by Cardinal Gibbons
   - Other Catholic apologetics works
2. Amazon / Christian Book Distributors:
   - John Wesley complete works (various editions available)
   - D.L. Moody books (some still in print)
3. Used Book Sources:
   - AbeBooks.com: Specialty in rare/used books, excellent for out-of-print Catholic/Protestant works
   - ThriftBooks.com: General used books, often very affordable
   - eBay: Search by title/author
   - Catholic used bookstores: Often have older catechisms and apologetics works

Step 5: Organize and Backup

Create organized archive:

1. Folder Structure:

```
Source_Documents/
├── Catholic_Sources/
│   ├── Vatican_Official/
│   ├── Books_Catechisms/
│   ├── Periodicals_Newspapers/
│   ├── Letters_Correspondence/
│   └── Public_Addresses/└── Protestant_Sources/
    ├── Anglican_Episcopal/├── Baptist/
    ├── Congregationalist/
    ├── Disciples_of_Christ/
    ├── Lutheran/
    ├── Methodist/
    ├── Presbyterian/
    └── Evangelical/
```

2. File Naming Convention:
   - Use descriptive names: `Author_Title_Year_PageNumber.pdf`
   - Example: `Gibbons_Faith_Of_Our_Fathers_1876_p89.pdf`
   - Example: `Hiscox_NY_Examiner_1893_Nov16_Baptist_Admission.pdf`
3. Create Index Document:

    - Maintain spreadsheet or document listing:
        - File name
        - Full citation
        - Key quote
        - Page number
        - Availability status (Downloaded, Ordered, In Library, etc.)

4. Multiple Backups:
    - Local hard drive
    - External backup drive
    - Cloud storage (Google Drive, Dropbox, OneDrive)
    - USB drive as additional backup

Research Notes

Success Likelihood by Source Type:

Very High (90%+):

- Vatican documents (Dies Domini, Catechism) - Fully available online
- Augsburg Confession - Fully available online
- John Wesley's works - Fully available online
- Archive.org digitized books - Many titles likely available

High (60-90%):

- Google Books full-view titles (pre-1923 publications)
- HathiTrust academic library digitizations
- Historical newspaper databases (Chronicling America, Newspapers.com)

Medium (30-60%):

- Historical Catholic periodicals (diocesan newspapers, Catholic magazines)
- Protestant denominational periodicals (Christian Advocate, etc.)
- Parish bulletins and local church publications

Lower (10-30%):

- Personal correspondence (Cardinal Gibbons letters, etc.) - Require archive access
- Rare pamphlets and tracts - May require specialized collections
- Some out-of-print books not yet digitized

Alternative If Physical Access Unavailable:

If you cannot access physical archives or certain materials:

1. Citation Verification: Most quotes from these sources have been verified and republished in multiple secondary sources. Cross-reference citations in:
    - Academic books on Sabbath history

    - Seventh-day Adventist historical documentation
    - Protestant Reformation history
    - Catholic apologetics literature

2. Scholarly Databases: University access to:
    - JSTOR (academic journal articles)
    - ProQuest (dissertations and historical documents)
    - Academic Search Complete
    - Religious and theological studies databases
3. Interlibrary Loan: Most university and public libraries participate in interlibrary loan systems allowing access to rare materials from other libraries nationwide.

Estimated Costs

If purchasing materials rather than using free sources:

Free Sources (Time Investment Only):

- Vatican documents: Free
- Archive.org downloads: Free
- Chronicling America: Free
- University library access (if affiliated): Free

Paid Resources:

Subscriptions (consider temporary/trial):

- Newspapers.com: ~$10-20/month (often has free trial)
- Academic databases (JSTOR, ProQuest): Expensive individually, but free through university affiliation

Book Purchases (currently in print):

- Cardinal Gibbons, Faith of Our Fathers (TAN Books): ~$15-20
- John Wesley complete works: ~$30-50 (various editions)
- Catholic Catechism: ~$15-25

Used Books (out of print):

- Historical Catholic catechisms: $20-100 depending on rarity
- Protestant theological works: $15-75 depending on rarity
- Note: Prices vary widely; shop multiple sources

Interlibrary Loan:

- Usually Free or minimal fee ($5-15 per item)

Photocopying/Scanning (if visiting archives):

- Typically $0.10-0.25 per page
- Some archives charge research/access fees: $25-50

Estimated Total Cost Range:

Minimal Approach (free sources only): $0-50

- Free downloads + one or two currently-in-print purchases

Moderate Approach (free + some purchases): $100-300

- Free downloads + several key books purchased + newspaper subscription (1 month)

Comprehensive Approach (all sources): $500-1,000+

- All free sources + book purchases + archive visits + professional researcher assistance

Recommendation: Start with all free sources first (likely to get 60-70% of materials), then assess which remaining sources are most critical before investing in purchases or travel to archives.

Next Steps / Action Plan

Week 1: Immediate Free Downloads

1. Download Vatican documents (Dies Domini, Catechism sections)
2. Download Augsburg Confession, Wesley works
3. Search Archive.org for all book titles, download available PDFs
4. Search Google Books / HathiTrust, download full-view titles

Week 2: Newspaper Research

1. Search Chronicling America for Hiscox article, Priest Brady address
2. Consider Newspapers.com free trial for Catholic newspaper articles
3. Document all findings, note unavailable sources

Week 3: Library Research Planning

1. Search WorldCat for unavailable titles, identify nearest libraries
2. Submit interlibrary loan requests for key titles
3. Contact denominational archives for access information

Week 4: Purchase Strategy (if needed)

1. Based on what's not available free/library, create purchase list
2. Check AbeBooks, ThriftBooks for used copies
3. Purchase currently-in-print essentials (Gibbons, etc.)

Ongoing: Organization and Backup

1. As materials are obtained, file in organized folder structure
2. Update index spreadsheet with availability status
3. Create multiple backups
4. Cross-reference quotes with obtained source documents
